

ANNUAL AWARDS 2021

FRANK WILLIAMS TROPHY - (Awarded to a person, not necessarily a member, who has gone the extra mile to help the Society.) This year's winner is Marie Louise French. Marie has contributed greatly to the Society not only as Editor of the newsletter, but by her enthusiastic promotion of the Cotswold wool, and of the Society in general.

THE BI-ANNUAL FLOCK COMPETITION. This year the competition was judged by Steve Parkes and Adrian Loker. The flocks are judged as a whole, (not as individual sheep) and on husbandry, management, marketing, and breed promotion.

Best Newcomer - (Awarded to a new breeder who has joined since the last Flock Competition run in 2019.) Alice Martin for her Lawford flock

Best Small Flock - John Palfrey & Ben Stayt for their Roelcot flock

Best Large Flock - Martin Nicholas for his Aston flock

FRANK HOULTON MEMORIAL TROPHY - Awarded annually to the member who wins the most points in livestock classes at nominated shows. Points are awarded for the six main classes, Senior Ram, Shearling Ram, Ram Lamb, Senior Ewe, Shearling Ewe and Ewe Lamb, with extra points for Champion, Reserve Champion, Interbreed Champion and Reserve Interbreed Champion. There were two shows eligible in 2021 - The Society Show and Moreton Show.

This year's winners are:
